World Issues Rubric

TOTAL SCORE	/50

Name_____ Date_____ Block_____

	Pts.	(20-18) (10-9) (5)	(17-12) (8-6) (4-3)	(11-0) (5-0) (2-0)
/5	PREPARATION	1. Description of project shows careful planning and extreme detail. 2. Clear and detailed responsibilities were assigned and maintained.	1. Description of project shows some planning and detail. 2. Responsibilities were assigned and mostly maintained.	1. Description of project is not very well planned or detailed. 2. Responsibilities were not assigned or not maintained.
/20	IDEAS AND CONTENT	1. Relevant, telling, quality details give the reader important information that goes beyond the obvious or predictable. 2. Clear and accurate details show an in-depth understanding and a strong sense of purpose to support the main ideas (required questions).	1. Support is attempted, but doesn't go far enough yet in fleshing out the key ideas. 2. Ideas are reasonably clear, though they may not be detailed, personalized, accurate, or expanded enough to show in-depth understanding or a strong sense of purpose.	1. Information is limited or unclear or the length is not adequate for development. 2. The idea is a simple restatement of the topic or an answer to the question with little or no attention to detail.
/10	ORAL PRESENTATION	1. Presentation is clearly rehearsed and confidently performed. 2. Performance communicates purpose to the audience. 3. Presentation is recited in a loud, clear voice.	1. Presentation is rehearsed and performed with some confidence. 2. Performance generally communicates purpose to the audience. 3. Presentation is generally recited in a loud, clear voice.	1. Presentation is NOT rehearsed and lacks confidence. 2. Performance lacks purpose. 3. Presentation is NOT recited in a clear voice.
/10	VISUAL PRESENTATION	1. The entire project demonstrates excellent organization and the presentation flows very well. 2. All information is exceptionally neat, interesting, and easy to see/read. 3. High-quality pictures & map relate to issue and include detailed captions & URL.	1. The project demonstrates good organization and the presentation flows well. 2. Information is mostly neat, interesting, and easy to see/read. 3. Good-quality pictures & map relate to issue and include good captions & URL.	1. The project is poorly organized and the presentation does not flow well. 2. Information is not neat, interesting, or easy to see/read. 3. Poor quality pictures & map may not relate to issue and may be missing captions or URL.
/5	RESEARCH	1. Three research records are fully completed. 2. Three sources are properly cited on a Works cited page.	1. Three research records are mostly completed. 2. Three sources are cited with some care on a Works Cited page.	1. Research records are partially completed. 2. Sources are NOT cited correctly on the Works Cited page.